

G-PAC: Global Perspective Rubric

	1	2	3	4	Score/ Level
Analyze an issue in terms of its global implications	Demonstrates minimal or no understanding of an issue in terms of its global implications.	Demonstrates partial understanding of the complexities involved in analyzing an issue in terms of its global implications.	Demonstrates adequate understanding of the complexities involved in analyzing an issue in terms of its global implications.	Demonstrates a sophisticated analysis of an issue in terms of its global implications.
Frame questions, gather evidence, analyze evidence, and draw conclusions about an issue in terms of its global implications	Questions, evidence, analysis, and conclusions about an issue do not address the global implications of the issue.	Questions, evidence, analysis, and conclusions about an issue represent a limited understanding of its global implications.	Questions, evidence, analysis, and conclusions about an issue represent an adequate understanding of its global implications.	Questions, evidence, analysis, and conclusions about an issue represent a complex and sophisticated understanding of its global implications.	